leaves from Sleepy Hollow on the Hudson, hung upon the marble tomb of Major Andre in Westminster Abbey, tells the story of that Revolutionary episode in which Andre was both victim and hero. Manifold are the monuments that treasure and commemorate the past. Of these many, this soldiers' monumental shaft is one. Its meaning will ever be an inspiration to patriotism, cherished and honored by on-coming generations."

Another pleasing feature of the day was the splendid work done by the Paw Paw band. The boys were the recipients of unstinted praise, not only for the fine class of music rendered, but for their courteous and gentlemanly bearing during the day.

FREE TICKET TO IDLE HOUR.

A number of Paw Paw citizens awakened to the fact that something ought to be done to make the town flyless, and they have made arrangements with the Idle Hour theater to give free admission next Saturday at 2:30 to every person under 21 years of age who brings to the theater an envelope bearing his name and containing 100 flies—swatted flies. Now let every youngster in town get busy with the swatter until there isn't a fly in town.

HAND BADLY HURT.

Edmond Fast, 20 years old, who has been working in the basket factory, had the misfortune Monday to have three fingers on his right hand badly lacerated by a circular saw. The injury is not as serious as at first supposed, but one finger will be stiff as a result and he will be unable to use the hand for a few weeks.

The Kalamazoo Grand Circuit Races Meeting has attracted 327 horses to their meeting, this being the largest list entries ever had by any Association in the state and the only explanation that can be made for this large list is that the horsemen know the Kalamazoo track is the fastest track in the northern country and they go there to make fast records on their horses. No one makes a mistake in attending this meeting.
